LOCAL AND GENERAL

One cent a word will carry your message to the people of Hawaii in the classified columns of the Bulletin. A thirty cent investment will place your want or wish before almost thirty thousand people.

Automobiles $4 per hour. Phone 6. Fine copperplate engraving and printing at Deakane's, Fort street. Call on Mike Paton at the Moore Saloon for a draft of Fresh butter-milk.

Dr. J. J. Carey, the dentist, has opened offices at Room 307, Boston building.

There will be a meeting of the Daughters of Hawaii tomorrow morning at half-past nine.

Mayor Fern has rented an auto from one of the local garages, paying $65 per month rental.

Our specialty is cleaning and blocking felt, straw and Panama hats. Expert Hat Cleaners, 1121 Fort St. Coast papers state that Col. Sam Parker has arrived on the Coast and will probably sail for Honolulu in April.

Frederic L. Morong M. D., physician and surgeon, has opened offices at 270 Beretania street. Office hours 11-1, 2-5, and 7-8.

Visit Jack Roberts at the Kentucky Saloon when you want liquid refreshment. You will get good goods and courteous treatment there.

On the eighth of this month there will be a competitive examination held at the naval station for the selection of dredge inspectors.

Green stamps are given (free) when you pay cash at the stores. Call at the show rooms and see what you get for Green Stamps, Hawaiian or Port.

Osteopathy cures when other methods fail. Scientific manipulation and adjustment of the spine. Dr. Steen, specialist, 1150 Alakoa street.

Superintendent of Public Instruction Pope departed yesterday for a tour of inspection of the schools on Kauai. He will settle all school difficulties while there.

"Hina-Matsuri," or the peach blossom season festival, will be celebrated tomorrow by the local Japanese. This is a very old custom, and is always generally observed in the home country.

The grand clearance sale at Blom's begins on Monday. Price reductions in no instance less than twenty-five per cent. will be made on the kind of reasonable merchandise that women, girls and small children need.

There was a reception last evening at the Dai Koch Wen Gen Wai Society, held in honor of C. Q. Yee Hop and Tong Kap, who are about to depart for the home country on a visit. C. Q. Yee Hop has been in the islands twenty-two years.

Treasurer Conkling has dug up the law in fact that copartnerships are subject to registration, and a stiff penalty attached for non-compliance with the law. There are a goodly number of copartnerships doing business in this city which have failed to register and Treasurer Conkling is going to make a decided move against delinquents in this respect.

The Stock Exchange will hold a meeting on Thursday, at which time H. B. Giffard will be elected exchange alternate for W. P. Roth and A. N. Campbell for R. W. Shingle. This is done on account of the new relations between Giffard and Roth resulting from Giffard's withdrawal from the Henry Waterhouse Trust Company service.

There appears to be trouble brewing for the Planters' Association claimed to have been brought about by Special Agent L. E. Pinkham, wherein it is claimed that certain conditions under which he forwarded two laborers to these islands from Macao are in violation of the contract laws. The subjects in question are two boys, who arrived recently on the Tenyo-Maru, who declared on their examination that they were coming here to work for the Planters' Association. The Federal authorities are investigating the case.

POLICE COURT NOTES.

Special police officer Minneville laid a charge of cruelty against Ben Gallagher, the horse breaker, this morning at the police court. The accused was charged with having cruelly beaten a mule; the flogging, according to the testimony of the police, was most severe and the animal, although stubborn, was badly treated.

Gallagher, who it is alleged by the police, was seen treating a horse in a brutal fashion on King street lately, was discharged by Judge Andrade. The judge knows the mule that Gallagher was driving, and it has a record for being about the meanest brute in Honolulu.

Pung Sung wended his way through the city yesterday morning long after the hour of nine, when all well-wishers should be at home. The odor from the "ice cream" cans attracted the attention of an alert police officer and Pang was arrested at once. This morning the defendant was warned about the danger of parading the streets during prohibited hours and then ordered to pay a fine of $5.

A bunch of Japanese soda water merchants was before the court on a charge of vending cold drinks that were not up to the mark as prescribed by the Pure Food law. Their cases were continued till a future date when their side of the matter will be listened to.

A couple of drunks faced the music this morning and the usual $4 fines were handed out to them. The auto speed cases were nearly all sent over till future dates and the court adjourned at ten o'clock.

LUNCHEON TO ALEX. YOUNG

The five sons-in-law of Alexander Young made the initial move in the coming festivities of the golden wedding anniversary which is to be celebrated next Sunday, by giving a luncheon to their father-in-law yesterday in the Young Hotel.

The table decorations were in red and yellow, the national colors of Scotland.

There was much good feeling expressed on all sides regarding the family relationship existing between those present. Toasts were given thick and fast, after which Mr. Young interested those about him with stories of the early times in these islands, reciting many of the inconveniences connected with plantation work and drawing attention to the vast improvements that have been made in the last few years in all of the branches of the main industry of the islands.

Captain Matson was also present and offered a toast which was responded to.

THE SOURCE OF TROUBLE must be reached before it can be cured. Allen's Lung Balm goes to the root of your cough and cures it. Harmless and sure. At all druggists.

Reports coming from the Eastern States of Hawaiians playing on the amusement circuits state that they are all doing well generally, and in some instances being the saving feature of plays that would otherwise be a flop.
